BROOKLYN

Silverware and Cutlery Sale

#1128 Broadway, New York, Sept. 23rd, 1898.

Mess. Jos. H. Bauland Co., Fulton & Duffield Sts., Brooklyn, N. Y.

Dear Sirs:—

We will accept your offer for the entire stock of Sterling and Plated Silverware, also Flat Ware and Cutlery formerly at Frederick Looser & Co.

We expect to make delivery to you of the above stock in not less than one week or more than two; goods to be in perfect condition.

Please confirm receipt of this acceptance, and oblige,

Yours very truly,

Intercepted

Nineteen Thousand Eight Hundred and Two Pieces,

Formerly on sale at the Store of Frederick Looser & Co.

F. M. Whiting & Co. Sterling Silverware, formerly on sale at Frederick Looser & Co.;

Meriden Britannia Plated Ware, formerly on sale at Frederick Looser & Co.;

Genuine 1947 Rogers Plated Ware, formerly on sale at Frederick Looser & Co.;

Meriden Britannia Cutlery, formerly on sale at Frederick Looser & Co.

Will Be Sold by Us Beginning Monday at About One-Half the Regular Prices.

A purchase that embraces more pieces of Silverware than the average exclusive dealer has in his entire stock. That's strong talk—and yet it's weak—doesn't do the subject justice.

Whiting—1847 Rogers—Meriden Britannia Silverware

Have been the foremost makes for half a century. Wherever good Silverware is found their trade-marks are prominent. Ask anyone who knows. It is the choice of their choicest. Formerly on sale at Frederick Looser & Co.—that we offer to-morrow. Each piece is a model of richness—of elegance—of merit—guaranteed to be the highest grade, best made. This is a chance to buy holiday and wedding presents at prices that will average less than half. We invite you to inspect the stocks—we invite you to compare the prices—we invite you to share our intimacies—the like of which you will never know again.

SALE CONTINUES UNTIL ALL GOODS ARE SOLD.
